6th Annual West. Regional Folk Fest. 10/11,12

6th ANNUAL WESTERN REGIONAL FOLK FESTIVAL

The 6th Annual Western Regional Folk Festival, co-sponsored by the Golden Gate National Recreation Area & Fort Mason Foundation will take place Columbus Day weekend, Oct, 11 & 12.

The Festival which is FREE to the public will be held at the old Fort Barry parade grounds, in the Marin Headlands of GGNRA. From 10:30am to 10:30pm each day, concerts, workshops, folk arts demonstrations and documentary films will be offered on three separate stages. There will also be a special children's folklife area.

The Festival, like the Smithsonian Folklife Festival, Wolf Trap, and other folklife festivals co-sponsored by the National Park Service, honors authentic folk performers & craftspersons of many different cultures. The Festival is supported by grants from the NEA & the San Francisco Foundation. For more information call the GGNRA at 556-0560.

FT. MASON ART CENTER, a part of SF Community College, offers ongoing classes for adults in drawing, painting, textiles, jewelry, sculpture, photography, ceramics, printmaking, stained glass, critique & curatorship. Classes are free to SF residents. 776-8247/931-3595 Bldg. B.

The Fort Mason Foundation, a privately-funded nonprofit organization, is engaged in renovating surplus military buildings at Fort Mason, headquarters of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. The Foundation administers Fort Mason Center which is located on the Bay between Aquatic Park and the Marina Green. In less than three years, the Center has become a national model for low-cost community-responsive urban parks.

We invite you to bring your conferences, classes, performances, meetings or benefits to Fort Mason. Space for suitable activities is available for a nominal daily or hourly fee. Enjoy the pleasure of teaching, working, or performing in this unusual national park location. Call 441-5706 for booking appointments and information.
